

KARIN ROSENTHAL WILL STEP DOWN AS CFO AT MIPS AB (PUBL)

Mips AB (publ) today announces that Karin Rosenthal, in mutual agreement with the company, has decided to step down from her position as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) at Mips. Karin has served as CFO since 2020 and will remain in her role until 22 October 2026 to ensure a smooth transition and to support the recruitment and onboarding of her successor. The search process for a new CFO will begin immediately.

“Karin has been an important part of Mips’ journey in recent years, and we will miss a highly competent, dedicated and positive colleague. I would like to extend my warm thanks to Karin for her significant contributions and wish her the very best going forward. The recruitment of a new CFO will begin immediately, and I am confident that Karin and her team will ensure a smooth handover,” says Max Strandwitz, CEO of Mips.

“Mips is a fantastic company, and my time here has been an incredible journey. I am grateful for the years spent working alongside so many skilled and dedicated colleagues, and I am proud of what we have achieved together. The company is entering an exciting phase of development, and I feel the timing is now right to hand over to a new CFO. I will take many warm memories with me and will continue to follow Mips’ journey with great interest,” says Karin Rosenthal, leaving CFO.
