

4C Strategies expands its delivery to NATO through a new software agreement

4C Group AB (publ) ("4C") announces that 4C Strategies has expanded its delivery to NATO Headquarters with additional software products. The agreement comprises a four-year framework contract valued at USD 1.1 million (SEK 10.2 million) for the delivery of the company's continuity management software.

The company also announces that it has been awarded additional call-off orders of approximately USD 1.0 million (SEK 9.2 million) for maintenance, customization, and services related to ongoing deliveries, to be delivered during 2026.

"We have long been proud of our work with NATO and of the trust they place in our software. Being entrusted to deliver capabilities that strengthen NATO as an organization at a time when this has never been more relevant feels particularly important," says Jonas Jonsson, CEO of 4C Group AB.
