

PRESS RELEASE

Lagercrantz acquires Stalon

Lagercrantz has acquired 88% of the shares in Stalon AB, a Swedish manufacturer of silencers for hunting firearms. Stalon is based in Stalon, outside Vilhelmina in northern Sweden, where the company conducts development and production in its own facilities. The company generates annual revenue of approximately SEK 36 million with strong profitability.

“Stalon has built a strong position within a clearly defined niche through high expertise, proprietary products, and efficient production. We look forward to further developing the business together with the company, building on its solid technical know-how and strong product offering, while gradually expanding its geographical presence. We are proud and delighted to welcome Stalon to Lagercrantz,” says Magnus Nilsson, Head of Division, Niche Products.

“It feels very positive to take the next step in Stalon’s development together with a long-term owner that understands niche product companies and entrepreneurship. As part of Lagercrantz, we gain access to experience and resources that can support our continued internationalization and development,” comment Daniel and Maria Axelsson, who will remain co-owners and active in the company’s management.
