

MossHydro A S secures a NOK 6 million commercial contract with Aas Mek Verksted AS for delivery of circulation filter for wellboats

Oslo, Norway

23. June 2025

MossHydro AS, a subsidiary of Nordic Technology Group AS, is pleased to announce the signing of a commercial contract with Aas Mek. Verksted for circulation filters with a value of NOK 6 million. The contract follows 14 previous deliveries with the same design from MossHydro to Aas Mek. Verksted.

Aas Mek. Verksted situated at Vestnes, Norway is a world leading shipyard that has specialized in development and building of large well boats for aquaculture transportation and treatment for several decades.

About MossHydro:

MossHydro develops and manufactures water purification systems and filtration using proprietary technologies. Headquartered in Lier, Norway with manufacturing in Sweden, Switzerland and TX /USA, MossHydro have water purification systems installed globally in ships and marine operations as well as municipal water supplies and industrial applications

For more information, please contact:

Group CEO Rune Rinnan
Chair MossHydro AS
Mob. +47 900 56 028
rune.rinnan@ntechgroup.no

MossHydro CEO Kristian Holmen
Mob. +47 901 30 901
sales@mosshydro.com

Attachments

Press Release MossHydro