Stillfront Group announces strategic executive appointments: welcomes Todd Heringer and Kieran O'Leary

Stillfront is pleased to announce the appointment of Todd Heringer as Executive Vice President of business area North America and Kieran O'Leary as new Executive Vice President of Growth Platform.

Todd Heringer appointed EVP business area North America

With over 25 years of experience in the interactive online, social, and mobile entertainment industries, Todd Heringer has assumed the position of EVP of business area North America at Stillfront. Todd brings a rich background from the gaming industry with roles such as Senior Vice President and Head of Operations at Big Fish and positions at Backflip Studios and GSN games.

His tenure in these roles involved developing and implementing corporate strategy, cultivating a collaborative culture, and steering high-performing teams. In his new role, Todd will be part of Stillfront's Executive management and manage the overall performance of the North American business area, with a focus on optimizing the underlying portfolio of the region. Todd will be based out of California and started his new role on January 6, 2025.

Kieran O'Leary joins as EVP Growth Platform

Kieran O'Leary brings a wealth of experience from leading gaming companies such as Gameloft, Outfit7, and Rovio, where he has demonstrated exceptional skill in publishing and scaling games across diverse genres. As EVP Growth Platform, Kieran will leverage his extensive background in marketing, technology, data, production, and design to drive Stillfront's future growth. His deep understanding of the global gaming landscape and his passion for fostering collaboration make him a valuable addition to the Stillfront team.

Kieran will report to Group President & interim CEO Alexis Bonte but will not be part of the executive management team. Initially he will be based out of France and is set to relocate to Stockholm during 2025. He started his new role on January 6, 2025.
