

W5 Solutions appoints new Head of Business Area Power to support continued growth

To further accelerate W5 Solutions' growth journey, Joachim Hammersland will assume a more streamlined role as Executive Vice President (EVP) and Deputy CEO, with overall responsibility for Sales, Marketing and M&A. At the same time, Tobias Johansson has been appointed Head of Business Area Power, effective 1 November 2025.

Joachim has previously combined his role as Head of Business Area Power with his position as EVP and Deputy CEO. By separating these responsibilities, W5 Solutions strengthens its strategic focus and capacity for continued growth.

Tobias brings extensive industrial experience, having served as CEO of Rottne Industri, where he led transformation initiatives focused on profitability, digitalisation and international expansion.

This change strengthens our organisation and supports our strategic focus on sustainable growth. Tobias brings valuable industrial experience that will further enhance our business area, Power while Joachim's refined role enables continued momentum in Sales, Marketing and M&A, says Evelina Hedskog, President and CEO of W5 Solutions.

This organisational change supports W5 Solutions' long-term strategy for sustainable growth and operational excellence.
