

Outcome of directed new issue

The directed issues of 550,000 shares and 748,874 warrants to Christoffer Rutgersson that the board of directors of Qliro AB (publ) (“Qliro”) resolved upon on June 8, 2022, and that the extraordinary general meeting approved on July 1, 2022, have now been completed. The new issues are fully subscribed, the subscribed shares and warrants have been allocated and all conditions for the new issues have been fulfilled.

Through the new issue, Qliro’s share capital is increased by SEK 1.54 million and Qliro receives proceeds of SEK 10.12 million, whereof SEK 9.06 million from the shares and SEK 1.06 million from the warrants. The excess amount of the proceeds from the share issue will be allocated to the share premium reserve in Qliro’s balance sheet and will thereby increase the company’s unrestricted equity. The number of shares will increase by 550,000 from 18,522,973 to 19,072,973.
