PROCURITAS PARTNERS WITH PARKMAN I SVERIGE AB

Procuritas Capital Investors VII (“Procuritas”) is pleased to announce that it has acquired a majority stake in Parkman i Sverige AB, a growing Swedish tech-enabled parking operator that provides parking management solutions. As part of the transaction, Indigo Management AS (“Indigo”) becomes minority owner of the company.

Parkman i Sverige AB, founded in 2010, is a Swedish company offering complete parking management solutions with a broad range of technical and operational services. The company serves a diverse portfolio of properties, including retail centers, destinations, offices, commercial buildings and residential areas. Headquartered in Täby, with regional offices in Gothenburg and Arlanda, Parkman reported revenues of 610 MSEK in 2024 and employs approximately 85 full-time and 50 part-time employees.

Procuritas has a strong track record of investing in companies with the potential for transformational growth, in this case, supporting Parkman i Sverige’s journey to further strengthen the position in the Swedish market. The investment aligns with Procuritas’ target to support the UN Sustainable Development Goals by promoting smarter mobility solutions that reduce congestion, improve urban accessibility, and contribute to more sustainable urban environments.

Indigo has a long history in the parking and mobility industry across the Nordics through both operators and Autopay Technologies. The engagement in Parkman is a natural next step and an opportunity to further strengthen Parkman’s strong position in the Swedish market. Sharing the vision of making parking simpler, more user-friendly and future-proof.

Simon Erlandsson, CEO, commented: “We are proud to be partnering with Procuritas who have a fantastic track record of supporting businesses on their growth journey and making sure their potential is realized. Combined with Indigo’s deep industrial know-how, we could not have asked for a better set of owners, to which we have built up a great partnership with over the past months and really look forward to continuing this journey together.”

Jussi Holopainen, Partner at Procuritas, commented: “With the rapid urbanization and growing demand for smarter mobility solutions, we see great opportunities for Parkman to continue its strong development. The Company offers innovative and reliable digital parking solutions that improve accessibility and create real value for both property owners and end-users. We are excited to support Parkman in strengthening its market position and driving the transition towards more efficient cities.”
