Fasadgruppen signs major window contract in Oslo

Fasadgruppen's subsidiary DVS Entreprenør has been commissioned by Studentsamskipnaden SIO to replace all the windows and glass walls in Bjølsen Student Village in Oslo.

Studentsamskipnaden SIO is a welfare organisation for students at 27 educational institutions in Oslo. The current project covers 1,078 student apartments and aims to increase energy efficiency and improve the indoor climate in the neighbourhood. The work will start in autumn 2024 and last approximately 10 months. The order value amounts to approximately NOK 38 million.

Leif Erik Mortensen, CEO of DVS Entreprenør said; "We are proud of the trust from Studentsamskipnaden SIO and look forward to contributing to making Bjølsen Student Village a more sustainable and energy-efficient place to live."
