

SCHEDULE 1 – Management level posts held by the nominated candidates

Britt Boeskov

- Danish national born in 1978
- Education: M.Sc. in Intercultural Communication and Management from Copenhagen Business School.
- Professional background: Britt Boeskov was until September 2022 SVP Group Strategy and Execution in Better Collective and has since continued in a consultancy role. Prior to that, Britt was Chief Experience Officer in Kindred Group (previously Unibet), one of the largest gambling companies in the world. Being with Kindred from 2005 to 2022, she held various positions, including Chief Program Officer and Chief Operating Officer, during which time she led and transformed the business through fundamental industry changes, in terms of regulation, consumer expectations and technology advances.
- Other assignments: Board member of MAG Interactive AB, Mindway AI (part of Better Collective group), Gaming1 Group and Racecourse Media Group.

Britt is considered independent in relation to Better Collective and its shareholders. Britt holds 13,027 Better Collective shares.

René Rechtman

- Danish national born in 1970
- Education: M.Sc. in political science and international relations from the University of Copenhagen.
- Professional background: René Rechtman is co-founder and CEO of Moonbug Entertainment, an award-winning global entertainment company behind some of the most popular kids' titles in the world. Prior to Moonbug, René was head of non-linear media networks at The Walt Disney Company, where he was responsible for building a digital studio to create products for global distribution. He joined Disney through its acquisition of Maker Studios in 2014, where he served as president of international and focused on product growth and rapidly expanded international business across EMEA, Asia, and Latin America. Prior to that, René served as CEO of AOL BeOn, the global branded content division of AOL Networks, and SVP of AOL International. He joined AOL when Goviral, the fastest growing branded content distribution platform where he was CEO, was acquired in 2011.
- Other assignments: Board chair of Blast ApS, board member of The Guardian and Podimo ApS.

René is considered independent in relation to Better Collective and its shareholders. René holds no Better Collective shares.