PRESS RELEASE

Prisma Properties strengthens sustainability work - recruits sustainability manager

Prisma Properties is taking the next step in its strategic sustainability work by recruiting Celina Ankarstig as new Sustainability Manager. Celina will be responsible for developing, implementing and following up the company's sustainability strategy throughout the business.

Prisma Properties is a leading Nordic property owner and developer with a focus on discount, grocery and quick service restaurants (QSR). The company has a property portfolio valued at over SEK 7 billion, mainly consisting of modern and energy-efficient properties with long leases, and has been listed on Nasdaq Stockholm since 2024.

Celina Ankarstig has many years of experience in strategic sustainability work from the real estate industry as well as experience in ESG reporting. In the role of Sustainability Manager, she will lead Prisma Properties' sustainability work, including work with CSRD reporting, development of digital tools and processes, and internal and external communication on sustainability issues.

- Sustainability is one of our most important strategic focus areas and a natural part of our long-term business model. With Celina on board, we can take our sustainability work to the next level. We are very happy to welcome her to Prisma, says Johan Nielsen, COO at Prisma Properties.

The recruitment is an important step in further integrating sustainability work throughout Prisma's operations - from investments and development projects to tenant partnerships and daily processes.

Celina Ankarstig will start her employment at Prisma Properties in August.
