

Cary Group appoints Regional Manager for Rest of Europe

Cary Group has appointed Peter Watters as Regional Manager for Region Rest of Europe and new member of the Cary Group Executive Management Team, effective November 1, 2022.

"Peter Watters is an experienced international leader who has successfully delivered strong results and growth in his previous roles. He has a long track record of developing high-performing organizations within the Vehicle Glass industry and I am confident that he, with his solid background and capabilities, will be a great Regional Manager for Region Rest of Europe. Rest of Europe is our largest region within Cary Group and UK our largest single market after the add on acquisition of Charles Pugh Holdings earlier this year. One of Peter's initial and main focuses will be to fully support the UK team in integrating the businesses in the UK, implement synergies, improve operational efficiency and to increase profitability," says Anders Jensen, CEO Cary Group.

"I am excited to be joining Cary Group as Regional Manager Rest of Europe and looking forward to leading the region through its next phase of development. Cary Group, as a European market leader specialising in sustainable solutions for repair, replacement and calibration of vehicle glass, is well positioned to provide the highest levels of service and care to both our customers and our business partners", says Peter Watters.

Peter Watters has 25 years of experience from the Vehicle Glass industry, having spent a long international career at NSG Pilkington. His most previous role was Head of AGR Asia, Business Development & Commercial Director AGR Worldwide. Peter will in his role as Regional Manager for Region Rest of Europe be based in the UK.
