Thule launches new products for living an active family life at Kind+Jugend

Thule is adding to its award-winning juvenile portfolio with the launch of the new premium compact and lightweight city stroller, Thule Shine, the versatile, multi-purpose bike trailer Thule Courier and a new and updated evolution of the popular child carrier, Thule Sapling.

Adding to its expanding and successful product assortment, which promotes the enjoyment of an active outdoor and urban lifestyle with kids and families, the new products further strengthen the line-up from Thule, which also includes the iconic, award-winning running stroller Thule Glide 2 and Thule Urban Glide 2, the bike trailer Thule Chariot and the child bike seat, Thule Yepp.

Thule Shine

From newborn to toddler, the new Thule Shine stroller lets parents take on the rush of city life with their child from day one. The stroller's lightweight, compact, and easy-to-handle design is perfect for navigating urban spaces yet it's uncompromising in its premium features. The Thule Shine includes a padded and reversible reclining seat, large ventilated and extendable canopy, and a built-in adjustable leg rest for safe and comfortable cruising. The Thule Shine will be available in February 2022.
