

W5 Solutions Receives SEK 20 Million Order from FMV for Live Fire Training

W5 Solutions' business area Training has secured an order from the Swedish Defence Material Administration (FMV) for live fire training solutions to the Swedish Armed Forces. The contract is valued at SEK 20 million, and is planned to be delivered in 2025.

The Swedish Armed Forces' training capabilities will be significantly strengthened through FMV's purchase of additional advanced live fire training solutions from W5. The systems support a wide range of training scenarios – from basic shooting drills to advanced tactical exercises – enabling soldiers to train faster, more safely, and more efficiently resulting in improved combat readiness and enhanced performance at all levels.

"This order confirms the strong and long-term partnership between FMV, the Swedish Armed Forces and W5 Solutions. Together, we are shaping the future of live fire training by refining our solutions with focus on training efficiency and quality," says Toralf Johannessen, Head of Business Area Training, at W5 Solutions.
