

PRESS RELEASE 03.04.2025

Kåver & Mellin joins XPartners

Engineering consultancy group XPartners continues to grow and now welcomes the construction consultancy firm Kåver & Mellin to its collaboration platform. Through this acquisition, XPartners enhances its offerings with specialized services in structural engineering, while Kåver & Mellin gain the opportunity to develop within a larger network. Together, XPartners now comprises over 1,250 employees and has an annual turnover of approximately SEK 2.5 billion.

Founded in 1984, Kåver & Mellin is a technical consultancy specializing in structural engineering. The company has offices in Stockholm, Norrtälje, Uppsala, Tierp, Örebro, and Karlskrona. It offers a wide range of services in structural engineering and manages projects of varying scope, including new constructions, renovations, and extensions with diverse structural systems and foundation solutions.

– It is inspiring to welcome Kåver & Mellin to our platform. Their extensive expertise in structural engineering strengthens our offerings and creates new opportunities for collaboration. Together, we take an important step towards broadening and developing our joint offerings, says Sonny Mirborn, Group CEO of XPartners.

Since spring 2021, XPartners has been working to develop a platform for community development, where companies and specialists collaborate to create greater synergies in the pursuit of a more sustainable society. The business model is based on value creation through collaboration and entrepreneurship, where each company continues to operate under its existing brand but benefits from being part of a larger group.

– We are proud to become part of XPartners and look forward to leveraging our combined strengths to create even greater value for our clients. By combining our experience with XPartners' comprehensive offerings, new opportunities arise for both our employees and partners. Together, we can build an even more successful organization, says Anders Hedberg, CEO of Kåver & Mellin.
