

PRESS RELEASE 05.03.2025

Projektstugan joins XPartner

XPartners takes another step in its expansion and strengthens its presence in the Stockholm region by welcoming the consulting company Projektstugan to its collaboration platform. Through this acquisition, XPartners broadens its offering in construction and project management, while Projektstugan gains the opportunity to grow within a larger context and expand its network.

Projektstugan Stockholm AB, founded in 2018, is a rapidly growing and profitable consulting firm specializing in construction and project management in the Stockholm area. The company offers a broad range of services, including project management, production support, construction management, quality, environmental, occupational health and safety coordination, risk analysis, and business development.

– We are pleased to welcome Projektstugan to XPartners. They have built a solid business within construction and project management, and their expertise strengthens our network. We look forward to collaborating and continuing to create value for our customers together, says Sonny Mirborn, Group CEO of XPartners.

Since its inception in 2021, XPartners has built a collaboration platform where engineering consulting firms can work together to create synergies and drive sustainable societal development. Today, the group consists of approximately 1,250 employees and has an annual turnover of around SEK 2.5 billion. The business model is based on companies retaining their own brands and entrepreneurial culture while gaining access to resources and expertise within a larger corporate group.

– Becoming part of XPartners gives us a fantastic opportunity to continue growing. Through this collaboration, we can expand our offering, strengthen our market position, and at the same time maintain our independence and corporate culture. We look forward to working with XPartners to create even greater value for our customers, says Fredrik Järvklo, CEO of Projektstugan.

About XPartners

Founded in spring 2021, XPartners consists of over 30 companies with a presence across the Nordics. The group has an annual turnover of approximately SEK 2.5 billion and employs around 1,250 people. In April 2023, the investment fund Axcel became the new financially strong majority owner of XPartners, supporting the group's growth journey, including the addition of further engineering consultancy firms to XPartners. In addition to Axcel, XPartners is primarily owned by former partners of the respective companies. www.xpartners.se/en
