Finnish Taskut Communications joins XPartners

XPartners continues to grow in Finland and now welcomes Taskut Communications Oy to the group. Taskut supports its clients with strategy, communication, and digitalization related to construction projects and urban development, adding unique expertise to the group's overall offering.

Founded in 1985 and based in Helsinki, Taskut delivers strategy, communication, and digital solutions tailored to the needs of construction and urban development projects. Clients include property owners, construction firms, and public sector organizations. The company operates through a scalable project management model, combining in-house consultants with an established network of external specialists.

“Taskut brings valuable expertise within strategy, communication, and digital solutions. These are increasingly important areas at the intersection of technology, urban development, and stakeholder relations. We see great potential for collaboration and synergies with several companies in our group,” says Sonny Mirborn, CEO of XPartners.

Taskut has also developed the digital property marketing platform Platta – a service that helps large property owners promote their assets and manage day-to-day communications more efficiently.

“Becoming part of XPartners opens up new opportunities to continue growing and developing our offering together with other specialist companies. We share a long-term vision for sustainable urban development, where collaboration and engagement play a key role. This feels like a natural next step in our journey,” says Anu Pitkänen, CEO of Taskut Communications.
