Nocom Reorganizes and Focuses Consulting Services

Nocom AB (publ) has decided, today, to reorganize its consulting services. This is one step in the process of focussing the company's core business activities in IT solutions.

The reorganization will entail that business operations in Nocom Travelutions will become closely connected to Nocom AB. Due to this, Nocom intends to initiate negotiations on job cuts, which may affect 18 people.

"This process entails focussing our services in advanced IT solutions. At the same time, we want to tie the travel segment, and the business development know-how we have in the branch, closer to our other consulting services, to increase efficiency and profitability," says Stefan Skarin, CEO, Nocom AB.
