Press release

Indutrade acquires Swedish technology company Gedvelop AB

Indutrade has today signed an agreement to acquire all the shares in Gedvelop AB. The company's annual sales amount to approximately SEK 35 M.

Gedvelop develops and markets precision instruments and systems for measurement of flows and temperatures mainly within the glass industry. Sales are made on a worldwide scale, directly as well as through distributors.

The acquisition of Gedvelop will further strengthen Indutrade's position in the instrument and measuring product segment.

The acquisition is expected to have a marginal positive effect on Indutrade's earnings per share.
