

Mats Hultin, President of NOTE Norrtelje, has been elected the best contractor in the Swedish province of Uppland year 2001

In the first issue of "Svenskt Näringslivs" (The Swedish Economy) new monthly magazine; Contractor, the result of an extensive voting amongst people that is active within Swedish economy, has been presented, where the aim is to establish the most admired contractors in Sweden. Mats Hultin, President for NOTE Norrtelje AB (former Norrtelje Elektronik AB) has been elected the most admired contractor in the Swedish province of Uppland year 2001.

Mats Hultin is one of the three founders, as well as President of the successful company NOTE Norrtelje (former Norrtelje Elektronik) that since the eighties has produced electronic to many of Sweden's most successful companies within line of businesses like telecommunication, information technique and industrial electronic. For the fifth year in a row the company is listed on the swedish newspaper SvD's ("Svenska Dagbladet's") list of rapid growing companies. Year 2001 on 53:rd place.