

NOTE Xperi changes name

NOTE Xperi is changing its name to NOTE Lund on March 1. Xperi joined the NOTE Group in October 2002. Because of the strong brand that Xperi had established in southern Sweden, the company was called NOTE Xperi.

"As a result of our in-house development department and geographical location, NOTE Xperi has become an important piece of the puzzle within the NOTE Group. We are proud to be working in a successful group of companies, working together to continue to grow NOTE. Now as we work our way toward an IPO and become more public, we feel that it is important to draw attention to our solidarity with our sister companies within the Group. That's why it now seems that the timing is right to change our name from NOTE Xperi to NOTE Lund," reports CEO Kjell-Åke Andersson.
