Infinigate Holding AG acquires Nocom Security Nordic

Infinigate, a leading value added distributor of IT security solutions in Europe, has expanded its market to include Scandinavia through the acquisition of Nocom Security Nordic.

Nocom Security is one of the leading IT security value added distributors in Scandinavia, with 36 employees in Sweden, Norway and Denmark. Nocom Security has established a strong Scandinavian presence among suppliers, resellers and partners. Nocom Security and Infinigate have a well matched product portfolio and will quickly realize synergies under a joint strategy.

"The acquisition of Nocom Security is a major boost for our market position that will widen our presence to six European countries," says David Martinez, CEO of Infinigate.

"Infinigate is a successful distributor of IT security solutions that has carved out a solid position in Europe. The experience and expertise we have accumulated in Nocom Security will now be part of a larger and stronger Infinigate", says Stefan Ström, President and CEO of Nocom AB

ABOUT Infinigate

Infinigate, founded in 1996 with operations in Germany and Switzerland, was the first value added distributor in Europe to focus on Internet technology solutions. Today Infinigate is present in six European countries with a sole focus on IT security solutions. As a value added distributor Infinigate conducts sales exclusively through resellers and partners. In addition to basic services like technical support, training and customer care, Infinigate assists its partners with projects and sales/marketing activities. Today Infinigate has subsidiaries in the DACH region (Germany, Austria, Switzerland) and in Scandinavia (Sweden, Norway, Denmark).
