Gamesys goes live with Evolution Live Casino at Virgin Games

Evolution Gaming, the leading provider of Live Casino solutions, has launched a new Live Casino service at virgingames.com. The launch marks the first ever move into Live Casino by Gamesys, the online gaming company that also runs brands like Jackpotjoy, Sun Bingo and Starspins.

Virgin Games' customers can now enjoy a range of Evolution table games. The games, which are streamed live from Evolution's primary central studios in Riga, Latvia, include numerous mainstream and VIP variants of Live Roulette, Blackjack, Baccarat and Casino Hold'em.

Simon Mizzi, Marketing Director of Gamesys Gibraltar, said: "This is a hugely exciting time for Gamesys and its brands. We have been planning our move into Live Casino for some time and we look forward to building a strong partnership with Evolution Gaming."

Sebastian Johannisson, CCO at Evolution Gaming, commented: "After long and detailed discussions, we are thrilled to have signed this agreement and to have already launched a world-class Live Casino service for Virgin Games. Gamesys has always been very creative in its marketing and pro-active in player personalisation, and we hope to be able to further develop this partnership with special focus on the UK mass market."
