

First pharmaceutical application of XMReality Remote Guidance

XMReality AB announces that Alfasigma s.p.A, an Italian pharmaceutical company, will start to deploy XMReality Remote Guidance in their operations. The initial contract includes mainly software and is of recurring character.

This is the first pharmaceutical application of XMReality Remote Guidance and Alfasigma are planning to deploy Remote Guidance in several steps of their operations, including remote customer visits, inspections and audits, technical assistance from suppliers and also as support between their factories. Alfasigma have several production sites in Italy and a large number of subsidiaries spread around the world.

“Previously we have applications in the telemedicine sector. However, to now see XMReality Remote Guidance finding its way into the pharmaceutical sector through Alfasigma is a milestone for us. We will do our utmost to support Alfasigma going forward”, says Jörgen Rimmelg, CEO at XMReality.
