

Tangiamo and ELYSIUM Studios Announce Exciting New Partnership with the Launch of Dragon Roulette

Gothenburg, Sweden 02 May 2023 – Tangiamo, a leading provider of innovative electronic gaming tables, and ELYSIUM Studios, a renowned online gaming and technology developer, are thrilled to announce their collaboration on the groundbreaking game, Dragon Roulette. This partnership brings together the creative forces of both companies to deliver an engaging and immersive gaming experience for land-based gambling venues. The official unveiling of Dragon Roulette will take place at G2E Singapore from 31 May to 1 June 2023.

Dragon Roulette, an enchanting twist on the classic casino game, has been expertly adapted by Tangiamo for use on its electronic gaming tables. This unique transformation of the ELYSIUM Studios-developed game brings a fresh perspective to traditional roulette, featuring captivating symbols and icons that resonate with players.

The partnership also involves Abbiati Casino Equipment Srl, a premier roulette wheel manufacturer and global distributor of Tangiamo products. Abbiati has designed a unique roulette wheel incorporating the Dragon Roulette symbols. This stunning creation adds an extra layer of visual appeal, boosting the game's overall experience.

Chris Steele, CEO of Tangiamo, expressed his enthusiasm for the new partnership and the launch of Dragon Roulette: "Our collaboration with ELYSIUM Studios is a testament to Tangiamo's dedication to innovation and our pursuit of creating captivating gaming experiences. Dragon Roulette is a prime example of our shared vision for the future of casino gaming, providing exceptional entertainment for players while delivering value to our shareholders and casino operators."

Sergio Jacob, CEO of ELYSIUM Studios, shared similar sentiments: "We are excited to join forces with Tangiamo to bring Dragon Roulette to land-based gambling venues worldwide. This partnership has allowed us to expand the reach of our game, and we believe it will captivate players, creating a lasting impact on the casino gaming landscape."

Giorgio Abbiati, CEO of Abbiati, added: "We are proud to contribute our expertise in crafting a custom Dragon Roulette wheel for this groundbreaking project. The result is a perfect fusion of cutting-edge technology and sophisticated design that complements Tangiamo's innovative gaming tables."

Through this collaboration, ELYSIUM Studios, Tangiamo, and Abbiati aim to solidify their positions as pioneers in the gaming industry, delivering value to shareholders, casino operators, and players alike.
