Indutrade acquires Hemomatik – leading Nordic sensor specialist

Indutrade has signed an agreement to acquire all shares in the Swedish company Hemomatik AB, www.hemomatik.se, with annual sales of approximately SEK 65 million.

Hemomatik is a leading technical trading company specialised in sensors for automation, control, measurement, and positioning. The company offers a comprehensive range of various types of sensors that can also be customised according to customers' specific needs, and proprietary products. The customers are found in a wide range of industries, operating in segments such as general engineering, water/wastewater, medical technology and energy. Based on its technical expertise in customer application areas, the company has a high degree of consultative sales and long-lasting relations with its customers and suppliers.

Hemomatik was founded in 1973, has 18 employees and is located in Länna outside Stockholm, Sweden. The company also has a production site in Östhammar, Sweden.

The closing takes place today and Hemomatik will be included in Indutrade's Business Area Technology & Systems Solutions. The acquisition is Indutrade's sixth in 2024 and is expected to have a marginally positive impact on Indutrade's earnings per share.
