Bulten AB (publ) appoints Mathias Holst as CFO

Bulten AB today announces that Mathias Holst has been appointed Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Mathias has served as interim CFO since 22 October and will now continue in the CFO role. He remains a member of Group Management.

Mathias has extensive experience in finance and corporate governance, including from EY and previous roles as CFO and COO at Lynk & Co, part of the listed Geely Automobile Group. Through his roles at Bulten, he has also developed a strong understanding of the company's operations and strategic priorities.

"During his time as interim CFO, Mathias has demonstrated that he is the right person for the role. He combines a strong financial background with strategic capabilities, broad business understanding and deep knowledge of Bulten. Mathias has also been a driving force in our transformation, and I am very pleased that he will continue as CFO as we take Bulten forward," says Axel Berntsson, President and CEO of Bulten.

As a consequence of the appointment, Mathias will leave his role as Chief Strategy Officer. Bulten will initiate a process to find his successor.
