Acadia Pharmaceuticals and Saniona Announce Initial Positive Results from ACP-711 (formerly SAN711) Phase 1 Study

SAN DIEGO, CA and COPENHAGEN, Denmark – March 3, 2025 -- Acadia Pharmaceuticals Inc. (Nasdaq: ACAD) and Saniona (OMX: SANION), today announced the successful completion of the two originally planned cohorts in its Phase 1 multiple-ascending-dose MAD study (EUCT: 2024-514514-12-00) of ACP-711, formerly SAN711, in healthy volunteers.

In the study, ACP-711 was safe and generally well tolerated across all dosing cohorts. There were no serious adverse events, and all participants completed the study. Most adverse events were mild. No safety laboratory concerns, cardiovascular concerns, or abnormal neurological findings were observed.

Given the favorable safety and tolerability profile and the prioritization of essential tremor as the lead indication, Acadia Pharmaceuticals and Saniona are seeking regulatory approval to evaluate ACP-711 in elderly healthy volunteers and to test higher repeated doses. To enable this extension, the study has been temporarily paused until regulatory approval.

About Acadia Pharmaceuticals
Acadia is advancing breakthroughs in neuroscience to elevate life. Since our founding we have been working at the fore front of healthcare to bring vital solutions to people who need them most. We developed and commercialized the first and only FDA-approved drug to treat hallucinations and delusions associated with Parkinson's disease psychosis and the first and only approved drug in the United States and Canada for the treatment of Rett syndrome. Our clinical-stage development efforts are focused on Prader-Willi syndrome, Alzheimer's disease psychosis and multiple other programs targeting neuroscience and neuro-rare diseases.
