The cooperative family board game where the entire family works together to defeat the Villains coming to conquer the ship.

Billund & Boulogne-Billancourt – January 14, 2026 – Today, the LEGO Group and asmodee announce their third jointly-crafted board game, LEGO® NINJAGO® Destiny's Bounty Adventures.

Destiny's Bounty Adventures is a cooperative family board game where you and your fellow Ninja will go on thrilling adventures – facing serpents, pirates... and even a bewildered postman. In the game, Villains are attacking the great ship Destiny's Bounty, and the Ninja must defend their ship! To defeat the Villains, you must unlock your Ninja potential. Upgrade your skills and work together with your fellow Ninja using your unique abilities to thwart the Villains' plans to conquer the ship.

The new, enticing and beautifully crafted board game is designed by Dotted Games, an asmodee studio dedicated to making board games in collaboration with the LEGO Group.

Birgitte Bülow, CEO at Dotted Games, says: "We've created a board game designed to bring families together around a shared experience of fun, strategy, and storytelling. Set in the established NINJAGO universe, the game offers immersive adventures that pull everyone into the action – from the youngest players to the oldest. Every game is a collective effort, where teamwork matters and every player contributes to the group's success. It's fun, engaging, and leaves everyone with a great sense of having achieved something together. Whether you're deep in the story or just enjoying each other's company, this is a game that brings real moments to the table."

Christina Burcea, Marketing Director for LEGO NINJAGO at the LEGO Group adds: "It's an exciting year as we are celebrating our 15 years of LEGO NINJAGO. This anniversary year is all about celebrating fans and families and the Destiny's Bounty Adventures is a great way for families and fans to get together to play, have fun and bond with each other."

The game will be officially unveiled to retailers and industry partners at the London Toy Fair and Nuremberg Toy Fair (Spielwarenmesse) in January 2026. It will be available for purchase from July 30th, 2026, at Gen Con, the largest board game convention in North America, and from leading retailers around the world.
