"It's been truly remarkable seeing our latest game, Starborne Frontiers, coming together in the last few months. The team has put in all their effort to make this a high-quality product. We are almost ready for the next phase, to welcome more players and receive their feedback to make the game awesome!" - Stefan Gunnarsson, CEO.

About Starborne Frontiers

Starborne's latest game is designed for mobile devices but is also playable on PC. Frontiers is a Role Playing Game where the player assembles and upgrades fleets to explore, strategize and conquer the Starborne universe, which is filled with excitement and epic fights.

Updates on the game's release and development will also be available on Starborne's website, where the team has already published glimpses into the history of Frontiers' colorful galaxy.
