

Neonode - All eyes on the lawsuit

Redeye states that while the Q2 report held few positive surprises, all eyes are now (once again) on the lawsuit. With positive development concerning the swipe-to-unlock patent in mid-July, the temperature is now rising. With a possible decision on whether or not to reverse last year's disappointing Markman decision just around the corner, the stakes are high. However, as the stock market currently places a very low probability on a successful lawsuit outcome, the risk/reward is appealing. Redeye raises its Base Case.
