

H100 Group enters into a tech partnership with Epivity Health

H100 Technology AS (“H100 Technology”), indirectly a wholly owned subsidiary of H100 Group AB (“H100 Group” or the “Company”), has entered into a technology supplier agreement with Epivity Health AS (“Epivity”), Norway’s first longevity clinic.

Under the agreement, H100 Technology will deliver and customize its digital health platform to support Epivity’s patient engagement and care tracking systems, tailored to fit Epivity’s brand and clinical workflows.

“This is an important first milestone in our mission to build a comprehensive digital health ecosystem and this agreement marks the expansion for H100 Group as it moves beyond its roots in exercise and nutrition coaching to serve the fast-growing longevity sector.” said Sander Andersen, CEO of H100 Group. And he further comments; “By partnering with Epivity, we’re continuing our strategy of supporting industry-leading health providers with digital tools by bringing our scalable technology to the forefront of the longevity movement. And I believe it demonstrates how our platform can power personalized, preventative care across emerging sectors.”

Epivity, the first clinic of its kind in Norway, focuses on health optimization, age reversal, nutrition, and performance, using cutting-edge science and expert guidance to help people live longer, healthier lives. For further information about Epivity see <https://www.epivity.no/>.
