

Beijer Alma's subsidiary Beijer Tech acquires Intercut

Beijer Tech has today, November 5th, 2025, signed an agreement to acquire 100 percent of the shares in Intercut Sverige AB, a Swedish supplier of machinery for sheet metal and steel processing.

Intercut is a Swedish supplier of machinery for sheet metal and steel processing with its own service and support staff. The company represents several well-known manufacturers of cutting machines, power cutters, bending machines and similar equipment. Intercut is headquartered in Sollentuna, with service offices in Eskilstuna and Växjö. The company has 17 employees and revenue of about SEK 150 million with good profitability. For further information, please visit the company's website: www.intercut.se.

The acquisition is in line with Beijer Alma's model for value-adding acquisitions and Beijer Tech's strategy of acquiring profitable companies in attractive niches with good growth potential and high value-add.

Beijer Tech's President, Staffan Johansson, comments on the transaction: "Intercut is a well-known supplier of machinery with a strong position in the market. The company has successfully established itself as a trustworthy partner for smaller manufacturing companies as well as larger international groups. We consider this acquisition to be a strategically sound complement to Beijer Industri and see good opportunities to build on the company's successful offering."

The former owner and CEO, Anders Pettersson, also commented on the transaction: "We are pleased to welcome Beijer Tech as Intercut's new owner. We are proud of what we have accomplished so far as a company and as an organization. This has been a very rewarding and exciting journey, so I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our customers, suppliers and employees for their excellent contributions over the years. Now it's time to take the next step and we are confident that Intercut will continue to develop together, as a part of Beijer Industri."

Through the transaction, Beijer Tech will acquire 100 percent of the shares in Intercut Sverige AB with closing taking place today. The company will be part of Beijer Tech's Industrial Products business area. The acquisition is expected to have a marginally positive impact on Beijer Alma's earnings per share.
