

Flerie's portfolio company Nanologica has received its first U.S. order

Stockholm, Sweden, June 12, 2025. Flerie AB's (publ) portfolio company Nanologica has announced that the company has secured an order for its silica-based purification media, NLAB Saga®, from a new customer in the U.S. This is Nanologica's first order in the North American market.

The USD 140,700 order for NLAB Saga® will be delivered in the third quarter. The customer is a manufacturer of peptide drugs, and the order relates to evaluation of NLAB Saga® on a production scale.

"It is encouraging to see our portfolio company Nanologica entering yet another strategically important market. Nanologica has successfully focused on the Asian market and we look forward to following the expansion into the significant North American market," says Mark Quick, Partner at Flerie.
