

ZignSec signs customer agreement with Fitness24Seven

ZignSec has signed an agreement with Fitness24Seven, one of the largest gym-chains in the Nordics. Through this partnership, the gym chain will benefit from ZignSec's identity verification solutions, aimed at streamlining the new customer onboarding process. Initially, the implementation of these changes will be implemented in Sweden, Finland, and Norway.

As Fitness24Seven continues their global expansion, this agreement outlines plans to extend the partnership to include solutions for customer onboarding in Thailand and Colombia, in line with their strategic growth plans.

"This partnership highlights the growing need for identity verification, showing its value beyond traditional regulated industries to include areas such as fitness. It reflects our commitment to build strong customer relationships, emphasising our desire to evolve and grow together." – Glenn Mac Donald, CEO, ZignSec
