

Lapin Kumi, part of Citira, completes acquisition of Rengas Turku

Lapin Kumi, Citira's Finnish tire services chain, has today completed the previously announced acquisition of Rengas Turku, a well-established tire service provider with six locations in Southwest Finland.

"We are very happy to have finalised the transaction with the Rengas Turku team. Today marks the start of a new chapter for all of us, and we look forward to continue building on Rengas Turku's outstanding reputation in the Turku region together with our new colleagues," says Ville Roukanen, CEO of Lapin Kumi.

Rengas Turku will continue to operate with the same teams from the same premises. Marko Rantanen, Tomi Kaartovuori and Marko Virta will continue operating in the business as co-owners of Citira.
