

Ratos AB – number of A and B shares in Ratos

Since the 2003 Annual General Meeting there is a conversion clause allowing conversion of A to B shares in the articles of association. This means that owners of A shares have an ongoing right to convert them to B shares. In September 2026 32,174 A shares in Ratos were converted to B shares, which affects the total number of votes but not the total number of shares in the company.

After the conversion in September, the total number of A shares in Ratos is 84,604,886 (approximately 78% of the votes) and the number of B shares is 242,905,802 (approximately 22% of the votes). The total number of votes is 108,895,466.20.
