HACKSAW GAMING GOES LIVE WITH ATG IN SWEDEN

Hacksaw Gaming announces a new partnership with ATG, bringing a selection of its distinctive slot titles to players in Sweden via the operator's platform.

The integration, delivered via EveryMatrix, enables Hacksaw Gaming to provide its content to one of Sweden's most established and trusted operators, further reinforcing its position in a key locally licensed European market.

ATG is Sweden's leading horse racing operator and a highly recognised brand within the country's locally licensed gaming landscape. As an operator owned by Swedish trotting and gallop racing, whose profits are reinvested in the sport, ATG has successfully expanded its digital offering in recent years, complementing its core racing product with a growing portfolio of casino content.

Philippa Gregory, Operational CEO of Hacksaw Gaming:
"We're delighted to go live with ATG, one of Sweden's most trusted and well-established operators. Launching via EveryMatrix allows us to efficiently deliver our content to a strong local brand, further expanding the reach of our distinctive titles in Sweden."

This launch marks another step in Hacksaw Gaming's continued growth and expanding the reach of its distinctive portfolio through high-quality operator partnerships across markets.
