Atvexa acquires preschool in Sweden

Atvexa has acquired the preschool Montessorihuset in Saltsjö-Boo outside of Stockholm with 85 places on the first of July.

The preschool will be part of Atvexas subsidiary Unike.

"We are excited to welcome this well operated preschool with a high focus on quality to our group. Their culture and values are aligned with ours and they are equally passionate to create the best conditions for children to grow as we are" says Johan Kyllerman, Group CEO of Atvexa AB (publ).

"Atvexa's philosophy to attract founders and schools with a variety of concepts continues to be successful. This specific preschool will contribute to our diversity and its team members will benefit from all the advantages it brings to be part of a larger group, such as leadership development and networking events. "The fact that we continue to attract well run preschools shows that our acquisition strategy works well" says Johan Kyllerman.

About Us

Atvexa is a long-term owner of preschools and schools. We are one of the leading players in the educational market in Sweden, have a strong position in the preschool market in Norway and run a small preschool organisation in Germany. We are driven by a strong belief that our values; diversity, long-term perspective, openness and curiosity are important for creating the best conditions for children and pupils to develop and that there should be preschools and schools with different pedagogical orientations and working methods so that all children and pupils can find the right learning environment.

The Atvexa Group has shown approximately 30 percent average growth with profitability and quality since the start in 2009. Operations are conducted in Mälardalen, Västra Götaland and southern Sweden, large parts of Norway and northern Germany. Atvexa owns 20 independent subsidiaries that have strong positions in their respective local markets. The activities include a total of 148 preschools, 35 schools, a special school and approximately 3,890 employees and 16,200 children and pupils.

Atvexa AB is publicly listed on Nasdaq Stockholm.
