

EverQuest and EverQuest II end their anniversary year with a pair of new expansions

Darkpaw Games, a studio under Daybreak Games, caps off EverQuest's 25th anniversary year and EverQuest II's 20th anniversary year with the release of two major expansions.

EverQuest's 31st expansion, The Outer Brood, was released on December 3rd. In the new expansion, players get to confront an unprecedented threat as colossal dragons and a mysterious magical force surround a massive creature in the skies above Norrath. To face this overwhelming danger, players unite mortals and dragons in a desperate effort to drive back the invaders and protect their world.

EverQuest II's 21st expansion, Scars of Destruction, was released on November 20th. In Scars of Destruction dangerous forces have stirred chaos across Norrath, prompting healers and Quellious followers to track the mastermind. Journey to Odus' scarred coastline and beyond Western Wastes to the Dragon Necropolis to confront a cunning and ruthless foe.
