

Acconeer's directed issue of warrants fully subscribed by CEO Ted Hansson

The warrant-based incentive programme was decided by the extraordinary general meeting held on 2024-10-31 and entails issuing of no more than 350 000 subscription warrants to the CEO. The market value of the warrants at the time of subscription was determined by Optionspartner AB at 1,43 SEK per warrant, using the Black & Scholes valuation model.

CEO Ted Hansson chose to subscribe to all 350,000 warrants and comments: "I have strong faith in our technology and a growing market for radar sensors. I look forward with confidence to being a part of Acconeer's growth journey."

For more information about the warrant programme, see the bulletin from the general meeting.

About Acconeer AB

With ground-breaking technology, Acconeer has developed a radar sensor that opens a new world of interaction. Acconeer Micro Radar Sensor, with low power consumption, high precision, small size and high robustness, is a 60GHz robust and cost-effective sensor for detection, distance measurement, motion detection and camera-supported applications with low power consumption. Acconeer combines the advantage of low power consumption with highly accurate pulsed radar systems of coherent radar, all integrated into a component with a surface area of only 28 mm². The radar sensor can be included in a range of mobile consumer products, from smartphones to wearables, but also in areas such as robots, drones, the Internet of Things, healthcare, automotive, industrial robots and security and monitoring systems. Acconeer is a semiconductor company and, as a business model, sells hardware to manufacturers of consumer electronics products. Acconeer is listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market with the ticker code ACCON, Redeye is the company's Certified Advisor (CA). For more information: www.acconeer.com.
