Lena Åberg to Step Down as CFO of Impact Coatings

Lena Åberg has decided to step down from her position as CFO of Impact Coatings. She will remain in her role throughout January, with her departure planned for February 2027. The recruitment of a successor will begin immediately.

During her remaining time in the role, Lena Åberg will support an orderly handover of her responsibilities.

“I would like to thank Lena for her contributions to Impact Coatings and wish her all the best in her future endeavors,” said Jonas Nilsson, CEO of Impact Coatings.

About Impact Coatings

Impact Coatings (www.impactcoatings.com) is a global technology leader and full-service provider of coating solutions using PVD technology. The company is an enabler in the energy sector for off-grid power and hydrogen-related applications, as well as in automotive and other industries with emerging PVD use cases.

PVD stands for physical vapor deposition – clean processes of applying thin layers of coatings to design surface properties, prolong lifespan, and improve product performance. The company’s offer consists of efficient, modular, and flexible PVD systems, and coating services, underpinned by several decades of coating experience and expertise.

The company was founded in 1997 and has since expanded in Europe, Asia and North America. Current production facilities are located in Linköping, Sweden, and in Shanghai, China.

The Impact Coatings share is listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market (Nasdaq Nordic). The company’s Certified Adviser is Redeye Nordic Growth AB.
