

Carlsquare weekly market letter: Inflation on the verge of a comeback

The general trend for the stock market is still up. Our mantra since October has been that it is best to follow the trend. However, we would like to point out a potential threat to the market. This is rising energy prices, which would most likely bring inflation back into the market

Rising inflation could be a new headache for the stock market that we need to watch closely.

Focus on the Fed's rate decision today and what Jerome Powell will tell the market.
