

BIMobject welcomes leading seating manufacturer Figueras Seating to bimobject.com

BIMobject is delighted to announce that Figueras' products are now available on bimobject.com. The investment gives architects and designers worldwide access to hundreds of new BIM objects.

Figueras Seating is a leading seat manufacturing company with a legacy dating back to 1929. With 95 years of experience, over 40,000 successful projects, and more than 10 million seats installed worldwide, Figueras has a strong commitment to quality. The team of experts is dedicated to their craft and ensures that every product is perfectly engineered.

As pioneers in seating engineering, Figueras takes pride in creating innovative seating systems that optimize spaces and enhance profitability. Blending traditional artisanal craftsmanship with cutting-edge technology, Figueras delivers products that stand the test of time.

With a presence in over 130 countries through an extensive agent network and the United States being a strong market for the company, Figueras aims to be the ideal partner in turning ideas into successful ventures, backed by unmatched expertise in public seating. Its subsidiaries in the United States, France, and Singapore reinforce its international reach and influence.

"Partnering with BIMobject offers our company and the architectural industry increased visibility, advanced collaboration tools, and a competitive edge. It saves time and connects our business with industry professionals while aligning leading technology and manufacturing." comments Robert DeVries, VP of Figueras Seating USA, Inc.

"We are pleased to announce our partnership with Figueras, a global leader in seat manufacturing. Their 95-year legacy of craftsmanship perfectly aligns with our mission to provide architects and designers with top-quality resources", comments Martin Lindh, CEO BIMobject

Figueras has delivered high-quality seating solutions to theatres, stadiums, cinemas, auditoriums, and conference rooms worldwide. With an unwavering commitment to design excellence and sustainability, Figueras transforms public spaces into environments of maximum comfort and performance, enriching the user experience.

Figueras' products are now available in BIM format on bimobject.com
