Invitation to HEXPOL's Capital Markets Day 2025

HEXPOL invites analysts, professional investors, and media to its Capital Markets Day, taking place on November 4, 2025. Participation is possible either in person in Stockholm or online via webcast.

On this occasion, the company's management will provide an update on HEXPOL's strategic direction, operational development, and financial goals. The event is designed to provide deeper insights into the business, market outlook, and future growth opportunities.

Registration

Please register through this link to attend either in person or via webcast. When you have registered, you will receive a confirmation by e-mail. The number of seats to participate on site is limited, and priority will therefore be given to institutional investors, financial analysts, and financial media.

For participants on-site in Stockholm:

- The program begins at 12:00 CET with registration and lunch at IVA Konferenscenter, Grev Turegatan 16
- Participants will have the opportunity to meet representatives from HEXPOL, who will present materials and application areas
- Presentations start at 13:00 CET

For online participants:

- Presentations start at 13:00 CET
- After the event, a recording and presentation materials will be available on the company's website

There will be time for Q&A, with the possibility to ask questions both for those attending in person and online. Presentations will be held in English.

The Capital Markets Day is expected to conclude around 17:00 CET.

Warm welcome!
