

Niam Group welcomes Alessandro Lanfranchi as Capital Formation Director

Niam Group strengthens its presence in the DACH region with the appointment of Alessandro Lanfranchi as Capital Formation Director, based in Zurich, Switzerland.

Alessandro brings extensive experience across capital formation, investor relations and business development. Most recently, he spent six years at Lakestar, one of Europe's leading venture capital firms, where he held a central role within the Investor Relations & Capital Formation team. Previous experience includes assignments in the Credit Suisse Private Equity Group, advising clients of the bank on their private market investments as well as Credit Suisse Asset Management, where Alessandro gained experience in the investment team of a Core-Plus Multi-Manager fund.

"Alessandro brings a highly relevant background within capital formation and investor relations, combined with strong experience from international private markets platforms. His appointment further strengthens our ability to serve and grow relationships with investors across the DACH region," says Max Ilmoni, Deputy CEO at Niam Group.

Alessandro holds a Master's degree in Banking and Finance from the University of St. Gallen.

About Niam Group

Niam Group is a leading private markets firm in the Nordics, focused on Real Estate, Infrastructure and Credit. Founded in 1998, Niam was among the first to introduce real asset private equity to the Nordic region. Over the past decades, we have executed some of the region's most notable transactions. Since inception, Niam has raised more than EUR 7.4 billion in capital and currently holds around EUR 5 billion in assets under management across 9 active funds. We are headquartered in Stockholm with offices in Norway, Denmark, Finland, and Luxembourg. As our platform continues to expand, we remain dedicated to the values that define both Niam and the Nordics: transparency, integrity and resilience.
