Goodbye Kansas Studios wins order for game trailer from new strategic client

Goodbye Kansas Studios has received an order for the production of a cinematic game trailer for a game project. The order comes from a new strategic, international customer and the value of the order amounts to approximately SEK 17 million. Production has started and will continue until early 2025.

"We continue to win important new orders from international gaming companies, and we are particularly pleased that this is a new customer, with whom we see opportunities for extended cooperation over time. Through our unique ability to combine creativity and quality in a competitive market, we are once again showing that we are on track to achieve profitable growth in the studio business," says Stefan Danieli, CEO of Goodbye Kansas Group.

Goodbye Kansas Group is currently fully focused on the operations of its subsidiary Goodbye Kansas Studios, a leading provider of technology-driven visual content in a global market.
