

Scandinavian Enviro System's Nomination Committee proposes Ewa Björling as new Chairman of Enviro's Board of Directors

The Nomination Committee of Scandinavian Enviro Systems ("Enviro") has proposed Ewa Björling as new member and Chairman of the Board of directors of Enviro. Ewa Björling is currently serving as a member of the board of directors of several companies, including Essity and Nynäs.

"Ewa Björling brings a wealth of board experience and expertise in different fields to Enviro, and we are confident that she will lead the company through its next phase of growth and innovation", says Fabien Gaboriaud, chairman of the Nomination Committee.

The full proposal from the nomination committee will be announced in the regular notice of the General Assembly at May 9.

Scandinavian Enviro Systems contributes to enhanced environmental and economic sustainability using a patented technology for the recovery of valuable raw materials from scrapped and end-of-life products, including tires. The production of new tires using carbon black recovered with Enviro's technology reduces carbon dioxide emissions by up to 93 percent compared to virgin carbon black. Enviro has its head office in Gothenburg and a plant for the recycling of end-of-life tires in Åsensbruk. The largest owner is the French tire manufacturer Michelin. Enviro was founded in 2001 and is listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market with FNCA Sweden AB, +46 8-528 00 399, info@fnca.se, as its Certified Advisor. www.envirosystems.se
