Challenging quarter - up in Europe and US still soft

Europe continued to show good progress in the first quarter of the year, improving both sales and profitability, while Food & Beverage in the US was soft. The efficiency program began yielding benefits.

The quarter has been characterized by uncertainty due to the Middle East crisis, but so far, business impact from the crisis has been limited. However, the continued soft development in Food & Beverage in the US, and an increased negative effect from currency in Laundry contributed to a lower EBITA margin. Currency is not yet compensated by price increases.

Food & Beverage impacted by soft US
Sales of Food & Beverage declined by 3.8% organically. Sales were strong in Europe while sales in the US declined. US development has remained subdued since last summer, Sales in the Middle East were paused by customers in March due to the crisis. Sales in Japan increased somewhat after several soft quarters. EBITA margin for the segment declined due to lower sales in the US. Order intake was flat in total, despite growth in Europe.

The integration of the Royal Range assets, the US cooking company acquired in January, is progressing according to plan and the company is now included in Food & Beverage. Acquisition and integration costs were SEK -7m in the quarter.

Laundry profitability negatively impacted by currency
Sales in Laundry declined marginally, mainly related to the US. Volume grew. Sales in Japan increased after several quarters of decline. EBITA margin declined, fully explained by negative currency impact. We are increasing prices to offset currency, and benefits are expected from next quarter. Order intake increased.

Efficiency program in line with plan
The program to improve profitability that was launched in September 2025 is progressing in line with plan. The production of espresso coffee machines has already been transferred from the factory in France to the other receiving factory in France, and production is gradually starting. Parts of the production from the cooking factory in Switzerland has been transferred to Italy, although the factory is not expected to be closed until end of the year.

Uncertainty – but building blocks in place to improve profitability Geopolitical and macroeconomic uncertainty were even more pronounced during the quarter compared to 2025, driven by the crisis in the Middle East. However, our track record shows that we are quite resilient towards external challenges. Our internal transformation is proceeding and is strengthening competitiveness. This year, we are launching a new laundry platform and new products in horizontal cooking, boosting our sales capabilities, as well as implementing the efficiency program that will deliver savings in 2026 and 2027. These steps, together with price increases to compensate currency, support better performance. As this is my last quarterly report before retiring on May 5, I look back with pride. Over recent years, we have made the company stronger, both structurally and financially, and it has been a privilege to work with so many talented colleagues. I am confident that Paolo Schira, who will take over from me, will continue the journey successfully.

Alberto Zanata, President and CEO

“The quarter has been characterized by uncertainty due to the Middle East crisis, but so far, business impact from the crisis has been limited.”

Notes

Note 1 ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

Electrolux Professional Group applies International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union. This report has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting.

The Group's interim reports contain a condensed set of financial statements. For the Group this chiefly means that the disclosures are limited compared to the annual report. Enumerated amounts presented in tables and statements may not always agree with the calculated sum of the related line items due to rounding differences. The aim is for each line item to agree with its source and therefore there may be rounding differences affecting the total when adding up the presented line items.

The accounting principles adopted in the preparation of this interim report apply to all periods and comply with the accounting principles presented in the Group's Annual Report 2025.

For the Parent Company financial statements in general are presented in condensed versions and with limited disclosures compared to the annual report. The interim financial statements of Electrolux Professional AB have been prepared in accordance with the Swedish Annual Accounts Act chapter 9.

The most recent annual financial statements of Electrolux Professional AB have been prepared in compliance with the Swedish Annual Accounts Act (1995:1554) and recommendation RFR2, Accounting for legal entities of the Swedish Financial Reporting Board.

Reportable segments

Food & Beverage and Laundry represent the Group's reportable segments.

Note 2 DISAGGREGATION OF REVENUE

Revenue from sales of products is recognized at a point in time, when control of the products has transferred. Revenue from services related to installation of products, repairs or maintenance service is recognized over the time the service is provided. Sales of these services are not material in relation to the Group's total net sales.

Geography is considered to be an important attribute when disaggregating the reportable segment's revenue. Therefore, the table below presents net sales per geographical region based on the location of the end customer.

SEKm	Jan-Mar 2026			Jan-Mar 2025

Note 3 FAIR VALUES AND CARRYING AMOUNTS OF FINANCIAL ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

The Group strives for arranging master-netting agreements (ISDA) with the counterparts for derivative transactions and has established such agreements with the majority of the counterparties, i.e., if a counterparty will default, assets and liabilities will be netted. Derivative assets and liabilities are presented gross in the balance sheet

Fair value estimation

Valuation of financial instruments at fair value is done at quoted market prices. Level 1 instruments quoted on the market, e.g., the major bond and interest-rate future markets, are all marked-to-market with the current price. The foreign-exchange spot rate is used to convert the value into SEK. For level 2 instruments where no observable price is available on the market, cash flows are discounted using the deposit/swap curve of the cash flow currency. If no proper cash flow schedule is available, e.g., as in the case with forward-rate agreements, the underlying schedule is used for valuation purposes. To the extent option instruments are used, the valuation is based on the Black & Scholes formula. For Level 3 instruments, where no market prices or observable inputs exist, fair value is determined using internal valuation models based on unobservable assumptions. These models, such as discounted cash flow techniques, incorporate the best information available reflecting how market participants would price the instrument in the absence of market activity.

The carrying value less impairment provision of trade receivables and payables are assumed to approximate their fair values. The fair value of financial liabilities is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate. The Group's financial assets and liabilities are measured according to the following hierarchy:

- Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for assets or liabilities either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3: Inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not entirely based on observable market data.

Note 5 ACQUIRED OPERATIONS

Acquisition during 2026

Royal Range

On January 9, 2026, Electrolux Professional acquired the assets of Royal Range, a US based commercial cooking company, for a preliminary purchase price of USD 20m, approximately SEK 184m. The final purchase price will be determined when the financials for 2025 are completed.

The acquisition includes a potential additional earn-out up to USD 13m, approximately SEK 120m, to be paid depending on future financial performance, in 2026 and 2027.

Royal Range, founded in 1995, designs and produces cooking equipment that includes ranges, ovens, fryers and counter-top cooking appliances. The company has approximately 40 employees, and has one factory based in Eastvale, California, US.

The business from Royal Range provides a strategically important addition to Electrolux Professionals existing cooking platform in the US. It combines and expands our product offering with new product categories in a positive and synergistic way. By utilizing the strong sales force of Electrolux Professional, we will be able to significantly expand sales of the products from Royal Range.

Goodwill represents mainly the value of increasing the cooking offer by new products and product categories. Goodwill will be deductible for income tax.

Royal Range's net sales and operating income from January 1, 2026 to the completion of the deal is immaterial and have been included fully in the consolidated financial statements of Electrolux Professional in quarter one, 2026.

100% of the assets are included in the segment Food & Beverage.

Transaction costs

Transaction costs related to the acquisition of the assets in 2025 amounted to SEK 8m and in 2026 SEK 6m and have been expensed as incurred.

The costs in 2025 have been reported in operating income within Group Common Costs and the costs in 2026 in the segment Food & Beverage.

Definitions and reconciliation of alternative performance measures

Electrolux Professional Group presents certain measures that are not defined under IFRS (alternative performance measures – “APMs”). These are used by management to assess the financial and operational performance of the Group. Management believes that these APMs provide useful information regarding the Group’s financial and operating performance. Such measures may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. Consequently, APMs have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for related financial measures prepared in accordance with IFRS. The APMs have been derived from the Group’s internal reporting and are not audited. The APM reconciliations can be found on the Group’s website www.electroluxprofessionalgroup.com/reports-and-presentations/

APM	Definition	Reason for use
Organic growth %	Change in sales growth excluding net FX impact and acquisitions.	The Group’s presentation currency is SEK while net sales are mainly in other currencies. Organic growth is dependent on fluctuations in SEK versus other currencies, and acquired or divested businesses can have a further impact on reported net sales. Organic growth adjusted for acquisitions, divestments and currency shows the underlying sales development without these parameters.
Acquisitions %	Change in net sales during the current period attributable to acquired operations in relation to prior year sales, following a period of 12 months commencing on the acquisition date.	See "Organic growth" above.
Divestments %	Change in net sales during the current period attributable to divested operations in relation to the prior period’s sales, following a period of 12 months commencing on the divestment date.	See "Organic growth" above.
Operating income (EBIT)	Earnings before interest and tax.	Used as an indicator that shows the Group’s ability to make a profit, regardless of the method of financing (determines the optimal use of debt versus equity).
Operating margin (EBIT margin)	Operating income expressed as a percentage of net sales.	Operating margin shows the operating income as a percentage of net sales. Operating margin is a key internal measure as the Group believes it provides users of the financial statements with a better understanding of the Group’s financial performance both short and long term.
Items affecting comparability	Material profit or loss items such as capital gains and losses from divestments of product groups or major units, close-downs or significant down-sizing of major units or activities, significant impairment, and other major costs or income items.	Summarizes events and transactions with significant effects, which are relevant for understanding the financial performance when comparing income for the current period with previous periods.
Operating margin excluding items affecting comparability	Operating income less items affecting comparability as a percentage of net sales.	Operating margin excluding items affecting comparability shows the operating income as a percentage of net sales adjusted for the items affecting comparability defined above. This is a key internal measure as the Group believes that it provides users of the financial statements with a better understanding of the Group’s financial performance both short and long term.
Capital expenditure	Investments in property, plant and equipment, product development, and other intangible assets.	Used to ensure that cash spending is in line with the Group’s overall strategy for the use of cash.

APM	Definition	Reason for use
EBITA	Operating income less amortization and write-down related to intangible assets (excluding right-of-use assets).	EBITA gives an indication of the operating income less amortization and write-down related to intangible assets (excluding right-of-use assets), mainly used to follow up operating income without the impact of amortization of surplus values related to acquisitions.
EBITA margin	EBITA expressed as a percentage of net sales.	Used to evaluate business performance in relation to net sales in order to measure the efficiency of the Group.
EBITA excluding items affecting comparability	Operating income less amortization and write-down related to intangible assets (excluding right-of-use assets) and less items affecting comparability.	Items affecting comparability vary between years and periods and are excluded from EBITA in order to analyze trends.

Why invest in Electrolux Professional?

These key strengths and competitive advantages drive our development and performance, and they all provide a strong foundation for us to execute our strategy.

Structurally growing end-markets

We operate in a market that structurally has been growing driven by GDP growth, higher income, and people spending more time eating out of the home.

Geographically balanced business

Approximately half of our sales are in Europe and the other half equally distributed between the Americas and APAC-MEA. This makes us less dependent on any single geography and its economic progress.

Track record of solid EBITA and cash flow

We have always – even during the pandemic and other major economic downturns – been a profitable company generating strong cash conversion and cash flow.

Focused plan to grow organically, supported by M&A

We have the products and the activities in place to grow organically. In addition, we have been able to complete an average of one acquisition per year to further grow the company.

Innovation focused

In order to drive growth and profitability, and also to provide products that increase customer productivity and efficiency, we invest more in R&D than the industry average.

Sustainability leader

We are the sustainability leader in our industry, according to external rankings such as CDP, Sustainalytics, and EcoVadis. All new products we launch have improved sustainability performance.
