

Faron Pharmaceuticals H1 - Advancing to registrational trials

Redeye provides a research update on Faron Pharmaceuticals following the company's recent H1 report. While the report did not include any major surprises, the company managed to maintain a relatively low OPEX despite concluding its BEXMAB study. Backed by encouraging clinical data and positive feedback from the FDA, we believe that the company is well-positioned for the upcoming pivotal study and a potential license deal.
